

Metal Processing - North America

A North American manufacturer of stainless steel products sought help on understanding the chemistry of mixtures of concentrated sulfuric and chromic acids, $\text{pH} < -2$. Sabol modeled the mixture and Sabol applied the classic simultaneous equilibrium analysis to the system of nine independent species, including use of activity coefficients, to produce guidelines on replenishing the acid mixture.

Joseph E. Sabol, Ph.D.
CHEMICAL CONSULTANT
P.O.Box 085198
Racine, WI 53408-5198 USA
www.chem-consult.com
Providing chemical analysis and research and development services since 1999.
