

Extraction of substances from plant material and subsequent conversion.

Client was interested in extraction of one or more substances from plant material and subsequent conversion into one or more other substances, ~kg quantities.

Methods for sub-gram procedures were located and scale-up procedures and issues, technology, solvents, and conditions were presented, including GMP.

An estimate of cost to produce 1 kg product was provided.

###